THE RIDGE ROAD CEMETERY - 1

INSCRIPTIONS FROM the Old Eden cemetery, known locally as the Ridge Road Cemetery which is located 1 mile east of the village<sup>EDEN</sup> in Bayham Township off Highway # 19. DATA Taken in the fall of 1958 by Mormons and some inscriptions added by Mrs. Orrena Buchner Hanley.

Note: Of course, as are all of these old abandoned cemeteries, many stones are gone. Also no doubt there are many graves that were never marked. I understand that when the Baptist cemetery opened up in the present village of Eden, some bodies were re-interred from here on the Ridge Road as this was a Methodist cemetery. At one time there was a mill, hotel, log school, church and a small Baptist Church in the vicinity of the Ridge Road cemetery. The Methodist church was on a circuit with Straffordville and Maple Grove - the minister living in Straffordville, Bayham, Township, Elgin County.

Also note: when many names of the same family appear, it is not known, until someone has compiled its genealogy, the relationship.
