Eden Store

Kennedy Bros. had a store which originally was run as a gas station. Harvey and Bruce ran it.

It was built by Nathan Gray. In the 20's it burned and later Nathan Gray rebuilt a small place to use as a gas station. The pumps were taken out and Bruce Kennedy made it into a small store. It is now a machine shop.

Copies of bill heads in the Gray story showing other businesses were Denton 1910, Leach Bro. 1911 S.H. Backus 1923 (Garage) N.H. Gray 1917 Denton & Madill 1920 Gray Milling 1923 Kennedy Bros. 1925 N.O. Stilwell 1946

Early owners of the Bayham stores were listed in 1877 Atlas as 1814 Anderson P.A. & sons
1844 Best, F. A.
1848 Hoagg, W.C.
1845 Laing, George
1869 Meston, Archibald
1843 Moore, Wm.

Goods were teamed by horses & wagon from the railroad after it was built to the destination. First to do this was James Ostrander and the last was Walter Weeks after the Tillsonburg railroad came through.

Thomas C. Fero kept store in the old Walter McDowell house on the north west corner at one time.

The store on the south east corner was built in 1872 - present building.

John Chapman sold to Israel Stilwell who sold to Edwin Gray

(Chas. Johnson worked in this store along with Nathan when Nathan ran it for his father.) Edwin Gray sold to Isaiah Daugherty & Haus Caulfield ran it with him for some time prior to this century.

Storekeepers in Bayham Township were E. Boughner, J. Boughner, C. Ostrander, N. Stilwell, J. Nethercott, P. Singleton, H. Gilbert, J. Wallace, A. Griffin, F. Ford, H. Caswell, A. Caswell, J. Norton, D. Dean.

Other merchants in Bayham at some time were
Alexander, Ball, Bates, Brown, Caulfield, Cook, Daugherty, Edison, Emery
Fero, Hoagg, Johnson, Kennedy, Laing, Madill, McConnell, McKenzie,
McNaughton, Meston, Patton, Poustie, Saunders, Stilwell, Travis,
Wakeling, Williams, Wilson.

Also
Anderson, Beasley, Best, Caswell, Chapman, Cornwell, Eaton, Elliott, Evans,
Gray, Inman, Jones, Kerr, Leach, McConkey, McKinnon, McQuiggan, Moore
Phelps, Rankin, Saxton, Stratton, Walsh, White, Wrong, Wright.

Listed as merchants in Bayham in the 1842 Census:
John Alexander, Marseille Edison, John Elliott, Neil McKinnon, James Saxton and George White.

In the 1851 Census Sylvester Cook and in 1861 John W. Wrong.

Probably these lists are incomplete. Many of these were also the local post masters but not all of them.
