

'You are such a generous lot'

Westebring-Muller, who has been travelling on official duties since February, is to speak Thursday in Toronto during ceremonies marking the 85th anniversary of the founding of the women's institute movement.

About 1700 women are expected to attend the event sponsored by the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario, which has 27000 members as well as members of the junior women's institutes.

Hiepleh said women's institutes form the largest rural organization in the country. As non-political, non-sectarian and non-racial organizations, women's institutes are devoted to improving community and home life.

As part of her current tour, Westebring-Muller will attend a national convention of women's groups in Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 14 to 19. In addition to Dutch and English, she speaks French, German and Italian, as well as understanding Afrikaans, Spanish and Swedish.
