Homemakers Celebrate With Birthday Picnic

The Hartselle Homemakers celebrated their annual birthday picnic at the home of Mrs. Melvin Blackwood of 1343 Nanceford Road on July 16. The members' husbands were invited as guests.

Attending were eight members, and four husbands.

Also entertained as guests were Mrs. Arlin Blackwood, Ms. Betty Murphy, Mrs. Louie Addis, Denise Proctor and Steve Lewis and David Simpkins, the grandsons of the Melvin Blackwoods.

When the members arrived the aroma in the Blackwood's kitchen was enticing. Hamburgers were cooking on the grill and frankfurters were in a pot, both combined with the salads and desserts brought by members. When the ingredients were put together on a bun, the end product looked like a Whooper from Burger King or quarter pounder from McDonald's.

Mrs. Blackwood had attended a Council Meeting and announced the plans made for the new year. She said the month of September will be the month for Greek Cooking and on Nov. 12 Christmas ornaments will be displayed at the Civic Center. The club was again reminded of the upcoming county fair.

Sunshine gifts were received by Mrs. Doc Jones and Mrs. Allan Baggett.

The demonstration was given by Mrs. Dee Proctor: "Sew for Pay". She stressed the best advertising was by word of mouth and encouraged a work agreement before starting. She suggested the motto should be "We will not work for less than minimum wage."

The business meeting adjourned so the members retired to the living room. Mrs. Doc Jones seated herself at the piano and played a medley of tunes while those present sang. Her medley consisted of: "She'll Be Coming Around the Mountain," "America the Beautiful," "Sweet Hour of Prayer," "Clementine," "You Are My Sunshine" and "Hallelujah."

Mr. Simpkins delighted the members further with a solo on his horn.

Dear Margaret,
I hope you will enjoy
using my Wise Old Owl in your home. I enjoyed making it for you.

We have all enjoyed our exchange program with the Eden Women's Institute and especially loved having Donna visit us.

Dinger is getting excited about her trip to visit Donna.
Hope she can meet you.
Your Alabama Friend
