Evelyn Moore

Evelyn Lavina Moore was born April 7, 1907 on the banks of the Thames at the Poole homestead, Tait's corner, Ekfrid in Middlesex County, Ontario. She attended public school S.S. No.8 Ekfrid and No. 11 Westminister and four years at London Central Collegiate Institute, specializing in English in which she won Public Speaking prize in Middlesex Presbytery and a silver medal on "Canadian Poets" in competition with London Conference. She graduated from London Normal School in 1926. She taught school at Littlewood and Christina, Gladstone and Belmont. She contributed to Pathfinder, the Young People's magazine of United Church and taught a primary class.

July 28, 1934, she married Frank Moore. They had two boys, Peter and James.

In 1954-59, she was President of the Women's Missionary Society of Belmont United Church and a life member as well. She is a member of the Belmont U.C.W. and a member of the Belmont Women's Institute since January 1949, the convenor of Agriculture and Canadian Industries for eleven years and in 1972 was elected convenor of this committee for Elgin East District W.I. She was also P.R.O. from 1975-79. Both Frank and Evelyn were faithful to Yarmouth and Belmont Agricultural Society. She was a director of the Ladies Division, for six years, and a director of Belmont Fair Board; also Superintendent of Junior Fair. In 1957 she wrote the Society's History which was published in a Historical Booklet in honour of its Cenrennial. She served as Secretary-Treasurer of the "North School" from 1950-64. She became a Director of Ontario School Trustees and Ratepayers Association.

In 1965, when the school closed they organized as the North Rate-payers Association. Frank and Evelyn lived on a Century farm dating back to 1849. They were active members of the London and Middlesex Historical Society and of the North Yarmouth and District Society. They were actively engaged in the Centennial restoration project of a local pioneer cemetery, "The Fifth Concession Burial Ground" Westminister. They researched the local history and in 1971 were privileged to assist as Resource Personnel in the "Early School Environment Study" a curriculum project for teachers.

She wrote many Histories for the Centennial; the list includes:

- * St. George's Anglican Church
- * Belmont 1815-1971
- * North Dorchester History 1867-1967. This was a Township Centennial project.
- * The History of the MacFarlanes

The Belmont Women's Institute disbanded October 1981. She joined Kingsmill-Mapleton Women's Institute in 1986. the K.M.W.I. members celebrated her 90th birthday in her home April 1997. She is our oldest member and has contributed much to our community.

In Ap

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
 for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
 thou anointest my head with oil;
 my cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
 me all the days of my life:
 and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
