

This story was told by Mr Lasby--former secretary of the Agricultural Fairs for Ontario.---A minister was preaching to a group of mental patients at the O.H. As he warmed up to his subject he shouted 'Why are we here??' Why are we here? -- An old man in the back row rose to his feet and said 'We're here because we'RE WE'RE not all there'.

Father to Daughter

FATHER--Young lady when I was young--sometimes girls blushed.
Daughter--Whatever did you say to them Daddy ??

QUOTE from a Sunday school lesson

The impossible we do right now.
Miracles take a little longer.--

Two lovers walking down the street---She trips--he murmurs 'careful Sweet'---
Now Wed. they tread that self same street--She trips --'he growls--Pick up your feet'.

Two things a child will share MEASLES AND HIS MOTHER'S AGE.

By the time you get to greener pastures,you'r too tired to climb the fence.

ORDINARY FOLK

Every year we like to say a word for the ordinary folk. These are the Families and individuals who never get public acclaim. There are so many people who live quietly--they work hard--keep their homes attractive--raise their children--educate them --go to church. These people are the backbone of our Canadian Nation. These fine folk never ask for praise, never look for applause. They go about their own business---Good people all of them. Many of these fine people live right here in this our very own community.!!!

Barbarism

(Toronto Globe and Mail)

Yes, we do live in a violent world, but that is surely not to say we should go out of our way to cultivate violence, to promote it with the promise of vast rewards, or to foster it by taking dead aim at the more bloodthirsty elements of human nature.

WANTS REFORM

The government's limit the powers of coroners to protect the civil rights of the majority of the population since the first session since the report last April by the Law Reform Commission. An overhaul of the system was recommended.

dent, Janet Hiepleh of Springfield, president of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario, Pat Nichols, treasurer, Vera Meek, secretary and Hazel Rowe, vice president. Mrs. Blackman was presented with a life membership pin on the occasion. (T-J Photo).

Paynes Mills WI mark 35th anniversary

The Paynes Mills Women's Institute was formed in February 1946; this year the group is marking its 35th anniversary.

Neighboring groups are being entertained by the women's institute in the Paynes Mills Hall.

Mrs. Tom Blackman, RR 7, St. Thomas, is president of the group and says the group is fortunate to have its own hall for its activities and those of the community.

The group does enough catering she says to pay for expenses.

In the past year, the group enjoyed a visit with its Women's Institute, twin — Springfield.

Other activities included a trip for lunch as a group to Burford to visit a member who had moved; attendance at the Elgin West District Annual meeting; attendance at the London Area Convention in St. Mary's; and tour of the Bob Anderson horse farm at RR 5, St. Thomas, where members viewed the farming operation — now a local big business.

This trip included several men which members felt was most productive.

Regular activities include a family night pot luck supper, working at the Elgin Manor Tuck shop and involvement in the Elgin West Daffodil Auxiliary tea.
