Shedden WI marks 90th

FOR THE TIMES-JOURNAL

The Shedden Women's Institute recently celebrated its 90th anniversary.

A mystery trip was arranged for members of the group and members left on the journey from Shedden with contests to keep them interested for their travels to the small picturesque town of Petrolia, Ont..

While there, they went to the Victoria Playhouse Theatre and saw the production, Menopausal, a delightful comedy about four high school classmates years later remembering and reliving.

Following the theatre, members travelled back to Glencoe to the Palace Restaurant where the table was adorned with souvenirs of the day. Special candle holders had been individually painted for the occasion, as well as a special program presented to each member with a history of the Shedden WI. Each member also received a shasta daisy plant to plant as a memento.

Shedden WI has been an active group in their community since the First World War when members knitted articles and helped financially by providing supplies where needed.

The first president of the group was Mrs. W. Guest and Mrs. F. Trace served as secretary-treasurer. Over the years WI has sponsored special courses for the women of the community in many areas such as quilting, needlework, baking and crafts.

In 1948 the Tweedsmuir History was established to record the history of the Shedden area. Mary Jane McIntyre was the first curator. She also contributed a column to the St. Thomas Times-Journal entitled, Janet's Saturday Column, for 40 years.

In 1990, members of the Shedden WI compiled a book of 100 of their favourite columns and printed a book.

Another project which the WI began was to hand out Welcome Books to newcomers in our community which contained lists of businesses, organizations and activities in the community.

The Institute has also sponsored 4-H Clubs, contributed to local societies, hospitals and museums.

Shedden WI has been a thriving organization for 90 years and will continue for serving for some time.

HISTORY OF SHEDDEN W.I.

Shedden Women's Institute was organized May 31, 1913.

The first officers were:

President - Mrs. W. Guest

Vice-President - Mrs. J. A. Orchard

Secretary-Treasurer - Mrs. F. Trace

Directors - Mrs. C. Petit, Mrs. Dan Hamilton, Miss M. McKenzie

Auditors - Mrs. D. Russell, Mrs. M. White

During World War 1 all the war work for the community was done under the auspices of the Shedden W.I. Money was raised by various means, and hundreds of articles were knitted. At the first of the Second World War a Patriotic Society was organized under the Red Cross. This organization took charge of all the work, the Women's Institute contributing money to buy supplies. At the end of the war, the W.I. along with the Community welcomed the returning veterans with a banquet and a special Memorial tribute.

Over the years the W.I. sponsored special courses to the women of the community to improve their skills in many areas, such as quilting, needlework, millinery, baking and many other crafts.

An adult and child immunization clinic operated in the the United Church basement for a number of years, which proved to be very beneficial to all who attended.

In 1948 the Tweedsmuir History was established to record the history of the Shedden area. Mrs. Arthur (Mary Jane) McIntyre was the first curator.

Mrs. Arthur McIntyre also contributed a column to the St. Thomas Times Journal entitled "Janet's Saturday Column by Mary J. McIntyre" for 40 years that dealt with local issues, and in 1990 members of Shedden W.I. selected 100 of their favourite columns and printed a booklet that sold many copies.

In the year 2000 a book containing pictures and information about all the properties in the village of Shedden was prepared with a copy to be placed in the Shedden Library.

HISTORY OF SHEDDEN W.I.

When new families move to the village, a leaflet supplied by the Shedden W.I. listing community activities and businesses are taken to the home to welcome the family to the community.

Appropriate cards are sent to those who are celebrating a special occasion, those who are ill, or those who are bereaved.

Over the years Shedden W.I. has sponsored 4-H Clubs, contributed to St. Thomas Memorial Hospital, St. Thomas-Elgin General Hospital, Pioneer Museum, and many local organizations and projects. Volunteering in many ways has contributed to the community. Along with UCW of Bethany United Church they have served meals at Shedden Fair for over 50 years. The flashing traffic lights installed in 1955 at the corner of Union Road and #3 Highway were the result of urging from the W.I.

For the past 10 years an information booth has been operated by the W.I. at the Rosy Rhubarb Festival, where they have sold homemade rhubarb jam and a variety of articles to support the Southwold Keystone Complex.

Shedden Women's Institute has been a thriving organization for almost 90 years and to all appearance will continue for some time yet serving "Home and Country".

Shedden Couple Are Married 55 Years

Mr. and Mrs. William Guest Married By Fingal Pastor.

Shedden, Jan. 11.—On Sunday at their home, Mr. and Mrs. William Guest quietly celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary. Dr. Sutherland of Fingal was the officiating minister at the wedding fifty-five years ago at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McDermind (the bride's parents). Mr. and Mrs. Guest established their new home in Bryanston where Mr. Guest followed his trade of harness maker and carriage trimmer. Later they resided in Lucan, London and Ayr, and about 20 years ago they moved to the village where they kept a men's furnishing store until ill health forced them to retire. Mr. Guest then took up his old trade of harness maker again and still serves the farmers of the community. Up until a few years ago when ill-health and falling eyesight forced her to retire from active services, Mrs. Guest was a very capable member of the United church W.M.S. and was the first president of the Women's Institute when it was organized in 1913. Mr. and Mrs. Guest have a host of friends in the community who wish them every happiness.

January 1933

Selkirk, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Atkinson, of Jarvis, were guests with Mr. and Mrs. Guest for the weekend.

Mrs. Walter Stafford, Miss Eva Morrison, Mrs. A. E. Orchard, Mrs. John Sells, Mrs. W. Ross and Mrs. C. Moore attended the District Annual meeting of the Women's Institute at Clachan on Tuesday. Mrs. John Sells was elected president for the district and Miss Morrison re-elected as district secretary.
