HISTORY

The Date of Construction of this house was not known at the time these records were begun, but it was used as a Funeral Home by Geo. E. McLay. It was rented to various families through the years.

1950's - Chester & Helen Wright Carr

Chester Carr Died October, 1986. Helen continued to live here until her death July 17, 1994.

1995 - Summer purchased by Colleen Fourney - The house & lot were severed to less than an acre of land.

1999 - Purchased by Kris Fourney. While thoroughly renovating this house, Kris found recorded on one of the bricks, the date 1873. This would indicate the probable date of construction.
