This house was reportedly a carriage shop originally.

The McIntosh family lived here. Their daughter Edith McIntosh married Gordon Whalls from whom George Ross purchased the property. We think that George and Ina (Atkinson) Ross lived here from the 1930's on. George died May 25, 1972 and Ina May continued making her home here until her death on Dec. 19, 1994 in Burlington, Ont. where she had gone after she became ill ,to be cared for by her daughter Bonnie. George and Ina are buried in Shedden Cemetery.

Wesley and Sharon Stafford lived here temporarily while their new home was being built across the street.

1995 - John and Fran Beharrell were tenants

1999 - Property sold to K. Ferneyhough
