London Area Women's Institute annual curator's workshop for Tweedsmuir history curators, was held on August 14, 1990 at Thorndale Community Centre.

Middlesex East was the hosting district. Mrs. Radcliffe as president, conducted the days event. The program included Mr. Glen Stott, a teacher at Delaware School, as well as Mr. Don Whetstone and Mr. Derek Newton, who represented the Middlesex Historical Society. Tweedsmuir history books were open for viewing, and several displays of historical nature were arranged by the host Institutes. House logs were reviewed, and small awards presented to conclude the day's program.

Mrs. Sally (John) McIntrye

A native of Brighton Sussex England, Sally came to London Ontario as a young woman in 1949. Trained as a hairdresser, she maintained her own shop for a number of years before changing careers and becoming a bookkeeper.

Moving to Wallacetown in 1975, she soon became a member of Wallacetown W. I., and served six years as their president. As well as serving on several committees, she became president of Elgin West in 1987, and served until 1990.

Presently she is our Provincial Board Director.

Two children from her first marriage, as well as four children from her husband's first marriage make for a busy household. They presently live in Dutton, while her husband is a secondary school teacher in nearby West Lorne.

Mrs. Shirley (Harold) Johnson

Shirley Johnson has been a member of Clachan W. I. since the late 40's, and held several offices in that branch.

She held the office of vice-president during the 60's, but returned to teaching and resigned from W. I. positions. Upon her retirement in 1978, she again became an active member, serving on the nominating committee for several years, and as Public Relations officer from May 1986 to May 1989.

Born in Lambton County, she has lived in Elgin since her marriage in 1945.

Mother of four, she continues to be active in her community.

"CHALLENGE YOURSELF, THE SKY'S THE LIMIT"

Have you taken a risk lately? You too can strive towards your dreams and become a risk taker. Owen Thornton teaches risk taking from a self-esteem approach which energizes you and starts you on the road to personal freedom.

1. Composting — London Master Gardeners

Bob Whitlock, Elmer Jorgensen and Ken Tanswell will give you quick and simple tips on composting. You win by recycling household garbage. Your garden wins because it gets a 100% natural soil conditioner.

2. Pretty Packages — Do It Yourself Gift Wrapping

Marilyn Parker, owns and operates her own shop in Union, which features silk floral arrangements and other crafts. Marilyn also gives craft lessons.

3. Putting It Together - Wardrobe Update

Carolyn Cameron, teacher and business woman, will show you the latest fashion ecology. Recycle your wardrobe with the newest accessory techniques.

4. Supermarket Survival

Joan Winfield, freelance writer, author, teacher and culinary expert will guide you on a slide show tour of the supermarket to highlight low fat, low salt, low cholesterol and special diet shopping.

5. Perpetual Perennials

David Chamberlain, Rural Roots Landscaping, will focus on planting your perennial border for continual summer colour and give foundation planting tips.

6. Accent Economically

Linda McLean, one of the outstanding decorators featured annually at "INTERIORS" will share her expertise and show you current, inexpensive ways to give your rooms a facelift.
