Graduating Class Banquet Guests

The Talbotville Community Group honored the 1959 graduating class of the school at a banquet at the Talbotville United Church, June 18. The tables were pretty with bouquets and the head table was decorated with a floral centerpiece. Mrs. F. Helkaa was pianist for the grace, also a song led by Mrs. Ralph Auckland.

A toast was given the graduating class by their teacher Mrs. S. Lucas, the reply was given by Douglas Coombs. The president of the Talbotville Community Group, Mrs. R. Cunningham introduced the students who in turn introduced their parents. Also honored were the trustees and their wives. Mr. and Mrs. F. Hilkaa, Mr. and Mrs. R. Brokenshire, Mr. and Mrs. H. Laur, the junior room teacher Mrs. R. Wildfong, and Mrs. H. Campbell.

F. Helkaa introduced the guest speaker, H. Campbell who is the guidance teacher at the Arthur Vaden Vocational School. He gave the students an appropriate message. Mrs. E. Cole thanked the speaker.

Mrs. Cunningham presented each student with a class picture, Carol Baker, Marie Auckland, Carol Young Etta Louise Palmer, Darlene Wilcox, Wayne Ketchabaw, Robert Bendell, Lynn MacCallum, Terry Dawdy, Tom Oegema, Terry McCallum, and Douglas Coombs. The thanks of the class to the group was expressed by Carol Baker. Mrs. Cunningham thanked the banquet convener, Mrs. R. Clinton and her committee and the girls who served.

Open House Held At Talbotville

TALBOTVILLE. — The Talbotville school held its annual open house last Tuesday. Parents were invited to visit the school and see the pupils' work books, art and crafts which were on display, and many attended.

Miss Shirley McCallum and Mrs. Lester Bates were in their rooms to discuss the progress of the pupils with mothers and fathers. Three girls of the senior room, Carol Young, Carolyn Khoury and Jo Ann Burtwistle, assisted by Mrs. Stuart Fife, served doughnuts and coffee, and 51 visitors signed the register on departure.

TWO teachers, junior and senior rooms, S.S. 6, Southwold (Talbotville). Duties to commence in September. Apply stating salary expected and qualifications to John Burtwistle, Sec. Treas., R.R. 7, St. Thomas.

Mothers' Guests Of Pupils at Tea

TALBOTVILLE — A successful Mothers' Day Tea with an excellent program was held on Friday in the school at Talbotville (S.S. No. 6, Southwold), under the supervision of the teachers, Mrs. Marjorie Lucas, and Mrs. Marilyn Wildfong. The rooms were prettily decorated with spring flowers for the occasion. Mothers and grandmothers of the pupils were invited, also the mothers of the fourteen children beginning school in September.

Grade five boys with Terry Dawdy, of grade eight, in charge, were in attendance to direct the guests. Marion Brokenshire looked after the guest book. Rocky Cunningham announced the mothers as they were received by students from each grade. These included: Douglas Coombs, Patricia Oxley, Nancy White, Taze Palmer, Barbara Esseltine, Ada Oegema, Bobbie Jacklin, and Randy Dawdy.

Hans Oegema, was chairman for a short program provided by the junior room. This included choruses, choral reading, an original puppet show by Mike Oxley and Barry Cole, a Maypole dance by first grade and tributes to mothers composed and presented by pupils of the junior room. The senior room joined in the finale, following a duet by Terry and Sandra McCallum, "A Song for Mother," when they filed in to present their respective mothers and grandmothers with spring flower corsages which they had fashioned themselves, along with written tributes.

The senior room pupils were in charge of the tea. The tea table was centred with a lovely floral arrangement, flanked by tall yellow tapers and it was covered with a lace cloth. Carol Young, Marie Auckland, Darlene Wilcox and Carol Baker poured tea and were assisted in serving by all the members of the senior grades. Refreshments were made by the pupils themselves.

Mrs. B. Cunningham thanked the teachers, Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Wildfong, for their part in the enjoyable afternoon. A gift of more than ten dollars was presented to the pupils for their bus trip fund.

Talbotville School Graduates Feted, Teachers Honored

TALBOTVILLE — The last class for the 1959 graduates of the Talbotville School was held in the junior room (where they all began) as a general assembly. Mothers and friends of the graduates were guests.

Janet Sue Burtwistle was the mistress of ceremonies for the opening exercises and a short program which included a vocal solo by Sandra McCallum and piano solos by Sharon Dawdy, Barbara Bendell and Marie Auckland. Carol Young gave a most impressive valedictory address and Ken Jacklin, on behalf of his schoolmates, bade farewell to the popular graduates. The class prophecy took the humorous form of a newspaper dated June, 1979. Billie Brokenshire played the part of a newsboy.

The young lady graduates were presented with arm bouquets of peonies and roses by Dawn Auckland, Marilyn Cole, Hazel Corr, Mary Ellen Dawson and Paula Pervis of Grade 1. The student body formed a circle with the graduates to sing Auld Lang Syne before filing outdoors to form an extended arch of foliage under which the graduates passed through the school gates to lusty cheers.

As leave-taking gifts to their teachers, Mrs. Marjorie Lucas was presented with a clock by the graduates and a musical jew's case by Grades 5, 6 and 7. Mrs. Marilyn Wildfong was the recipient of a crumb tray and bride and cake plate with server and members of her junior room.

The graduates, who will be attending Junior Collegiate and Vocational School next year, included: Carol Young, Tom Oegema, Mary Auckland, Bob Bendell, Sandra MacCallum, Wayne Ketchabaw, Darlene Wilcox, Etta Louise Palmer, Carol Baker, Terry Wildfong, Douglas Coombs and Terry Oegema.
