

LAMB

~ Peacefully gone to her Lord ~

At the St. Thomas Elgin General Hospital on Friday, December 29, 2006 Dorothy Viola (Fox) Lamb of Wallacetown in her 94th year. Daughter of the late Harry and Lucy (Westcott) Fox. Beloved wife of the late Edward (Ted) Lamb. Dear mother of David Lamb of Hamilton, Beverley and Larry McCaffery of St. Thomas. Grandmother of Jennifer Lamb and Ryan McCaffery and the late Katie Lamb (1999). Aunt of Jeannette (Fox) Beaton of Ridgetown. Predeceased by brothers Lloyd and Garfield Fox. Relatives and friends were received at the Arn Funeral Home, 193 Shackleton St. Dutton Tuesday, January 2, 2007 from 2-4 and 7-9p.m. where the funeral service was held on Wednesday, January 3 at 11 a.m. Interment in Fairview Cemetery.

*One gift above all others God gives to us to treasure one that knows no time, no place and one gold cannot measure.
The precious, poignant, tender gift
of memory
That will keep our dear ones ever in our hearts although God gives them sleep.
It brings back long-remembered things a song, a word a smile and our world's a better place
Because
We had them -- for awhile!*

5 ALL THE NICE GIRLS LOVE A SAILOR

All the nice girls love a sailor,
All the nice girls love a tar;
For there's something about a sailor —
Well, you know what sailors are!
Bright and breezy, free and easy,
He's the ladies' pride and joy.
Falls in love with Kate and Jane,
Then he's off to sea again —
Ship Ahoy! Ship Ahoy!

6 EASTER PARADE

(Words & Music by Irving Berlin)

In your Easter bonnet,
With all the frills upon it,
You'll be the grandest lady in the Easter Parade.
I'll be all in clover:
And when they look you over,
I'll be the proudest fellow in the Easter Parade.
On the avenue, Fifth Avenue;
The photographers will snap us,
And you'll find that you're in the rotogravure;
I could write a sonnet,
About your Easter bonnet,
And of the girl I'm taking to the Easter Parade.

68 WHEN YOU WORE A TULIP

(AND I WORE A BIG RED ROSE)

When you wore a tulip,
A sweet yellow tulip:
And I wore a big red rose;
When you caressed me,
T'was then heaven blessed me;
What a blessing no one knows,
You made life cheery when you
Called me Dearie;
T'was down where the blue grass grows;
Your lips were sweeter than julep,
When you wore a tulip
And I wore a big red rose.

67 BICYCLE BUILT FOR TWO and PARODY – “CHESTER” P.D.

Daisy, Daisy, Give me your answer do;
I'm half crazy all for the love of you,
It won't be a stylish marriage,
I can't afford a carriage;
But you'll look sweet upon the seat
Of a bicycle built for two.
Chester, Chester, Here is my answer true:
I'm not crazy all for the love of you.
It must be a stylish marriage,
You must afford a carriage;
For I'll be d..... if I'll be crammed
On a bicycle built for two.

72 YOU ARE MY SUNSHINE

The other night, dear,
As I lay sleeping,
I dreamt I held you in my arms,
When I awoke, dear, I was mistaken
And I hung my head and cried.

CHORUS:

You are my sunshine, my only sunshine
You make me happy, when skies are gray
You'll never know dear, how much I love you,
Please don't take my sunshine away.

I'll always love you and make you happy
If you will only love me too,
But if you leave me to love another
You'll regret it all some day.

75 BY THE LIGHT OF THE SILVERY MOON

By the light, of the silvery moon,
I want to spoon,
To my honey I'll croon love's tune,
Honey moon, keep a-shining in June,
Your silvery beams will bring love dreams,
We'll be cuddling soon,
By the silvery moon.

Dear Hearts and Gentle People

I love those dear hearts and gentle people who live in our home town,
Because those dear hearts & gentle people will never ever let you down.

They read The Good Book from Fri'til Monday
That's how the week-end goes.
I've got a dream house I'll build there one day with picket fence and rambling Rose

I feel so welcome each time that I return
That my happy heart keeps laughing like a clown.

I love the dear hearts and gentle people who live and love in my home town.

28 IT'S A LONG, LONG WAY TO TIPPERARY

(Words & Music by: Jack Judge & Harry Williams)

It's a long way to Tipperary
It's a long way to go
It's a long way to Tipperary
To the sweetest girl I know
Goodbye Piccadilly
Farewell Leicester Square
It's a long long way to Tipperary
But my heart's right there.

We'll Meet Again

We'll meet again, don't know where don't know when. But I know we'll meet again some sunny day.

Keep smiling through, just like you always do. Till the blue skies drive the dark clouds far away.

So will you please say "Hello" to the folks that I know. Tell them
I won't be long. They'll be happy to know that as you saw me go
I was singing this song.

We'll meet again, don't know where don't know when. But I know we'll meet again some sunny day!

WALLACETOWN W.I. UPDATE

The Wallacetown W.I. met at the South Dunwich Community Hall on Friday March 22nd due to weather conditions on Thursday the 1st at 6:00pm. The convenors were Doris Barber and Kay Waite who hosted an International Affairs dinner. Everyone was asked to pick a country and bring one or more dishes for the dinner. There were 7 members and 6 guests in attendance. The countries that were represented were Greece, China, Indonesia, Asia, England, Holland and Australia. The members also brought in articles representing their country to put on display. Kay Waite had a flag contest following the meal, which was an eye opener for most of us, since we had seen them but didn't recognize the country. Joan Johnston had the highest score.

President Helen held a brief meeting after the contest. Those that had attended the W.I. Winter Picnic were Helen Van Brenk, Sally McIntyre, Kay Waite, Louie Lackey and Darlene Ford. On March 26th, Helen will attend the W.I. District meeting. Then on March 28th a Volunteer Appreciation evening at the East Elgin Community Complex will be attended by Helen Van Brenk, Kay Waite, Louie Lackey, Kathy and Matthew Minnema and Joan Johnston. Our 95th anniversary celebration was discussed and arrangements are in progress. The meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday April 12th, at 1:30pm, at the South Dunwich Community Hall. Roll Call: Bring or tell about your favourite book of your childhood. Membership fees are due. Convenor is Helen Van Brenk. Annual Meeting & Tweedsmuir History.

KINGSMILL - MAPLETON WOMEN'S INSTITUTE 100th

Today you celebrate 100 years of devotion, hard work, sharing and togetherness. Way to go!!!!!! You should be proud, so let it show. Times have changed, people too, needs are just as great in this era we are going through.

Making quilts and jam to send to those in need, was your goal in the beginning, doing for others makes life worth living.

Preparing and serving Aylmer Fair dinners is now in the past, the Lioness you now feed each month will hopefully last.

Over the years sponsoring Fair Queen's and now Ambassadors have been a success, with many winners to add to the list.

Presidents have come and gone, and members too.

Secretaries and treasurers their jobs are demanding.

Volunteers and committee's giving their support, have always been outstanding.

I remember going to meetings with my mother, in my early years, hoping I could join and become a member.

Helping at fair dinners brought back the yerning, makes me proud to belong to this organization of women.

The laughter and information is never ending.

Each of the ladies had their own unique way of making you feel welcome by the end of the day.

Supporting your community throughout the years.

Makes you a success, to all of us here.

After 100 years all we can say is "WAY TO GO!!!!!!!!!!!"

You should be proud, so let it show.

Senior Centre celebrates 35 years

Feb 15th 2007

Dutton-Dunwich Senior's Centre started 35 years ago in Verna McCready's house.

McCready, who was in her 40s, says her mother and her friends needed somewhere to meet and needed to socialize.

She invited some friends over and from that the Adult Club began.

Now, with a much enjoyed centre on Main Street in Dutton, the club has become a centre point for seniors to meet.

About 50 people met for cake and music to celebrate 35 years Feb. 7.

Four of the original five ladies that started the centre were in attendance: McCready, Dessie Cook, Elsie Heeney, and Eileen McTavish. Jane Barnett sent her regards.

Current centre president Louie Lackey led a synopsis of centre history describing its growth from McCready's home to the current location in 1992.

The centre serves as a popular meeting place for coffee and socializing every morning, cards and self-entertaining.

McCready says it still fits the visions established in 1972.

She says she likes it because it's not a place to gossip but is a place where everyone comes light heartedly.

In its beginnings, club members made visits to seniors in the area and they still do, informally.

As well, members offer many volunteering hours and help transport people to and from appointments.

About 100 members frequent the centre.

35 years

JEFF KEMPENAAR/THE CHRONICLE

Founder Verna McCready and current president Louie Lackey cut the cake for the Dutton/Dunwich Senior Centre's 35 years.

With member-made quilts hanging on the wall and local history displayed the centre remains a warm and welcoming place, said Lackey.

McCready isn't sure if the next generations will embrace the centre but is humbled that the centre has made it so far in 36 years.

Stacking up

Members of the Wallacetown 4-H Lifeskills Club took part in a world-wide attempt to break a Guinness World Record for the most people sport stacking at multiple locations in one day Nov. 8. Here is Charli Weselowski, Jessica Jensen, Jessica Small, Jacqueline Zettler, Tori Gosnell, Kelsey Gosnell, Delany Leitch, Deanna Simms and Chelsey Page. The girls, along with leaders Pam Silva and Karen Keith participated in various sport stacking events for 30 minutes, joining what was hoped to be more than 200,000 stackers world-wide as the sport explodes in popularity.
