WALLACETOWN W.I. CELEBRATES

75th ANNIVERSARY

The Wallacetown Women's Institute had a pot luck dinner in the Community Hall on Thursday, July 9th, 1987 to celebrate their 75th Anniversary. A good number sat down to a bountiful meal. Guests included our twin Institute Sparta, members of the West Elgin executive - Helen Beecroft, Eleanor McMillan, Marge Cowell, friends and members husbands.

Sally McIntyre started the program with the Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. Louie Lackey played her guitar and sang two songs, "I am too old to Die Young", and "This Land is Your Land." Louie led in a sing song, accompanied on the piano by Laura McIntyre and Cheryl Vanderploeg.

The guest speaker, Leta West, was introduced by Gertrude Sloan. She showed slides and spoke on "Dunwich Township, Then and Now."

(A detailed account of the talk can be found in the Scrapbook.)

Elgin West District Winter Picnic

The Winter Picnic for the 14 branches of the Elgin West District was held at Iona Hall on Monday, Jan 11th 1988.

A pot luck supper and entertainment were part of the evening. For the program, each branch presented a short skit, song or talk on the theme "The Winter Olympics."

Miss Toni Merks of Dutton, was a special guest, being one of the fortunate few chosen as torch bearers. Toni, wearing her official track suit, told of her feelings the day she carried the Olympic flame.

Sally McIntyre is District and branch president and Toni's presentation was Hallacetown's part of the program.
