

Historic Home also Visited in June 1989.

This home on the Talbot Road east of Fingal is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Spangenberg.

Ladies are looking at a large stone tablet, recovered on the farm when building a pond. The stone is now used as a table in the beautiful back lawn.

This photo shows the hall at the Spangenberg home. - The stairway, the chandelier and the beautiful gold carving on the walls and ceiling.

S. S. No. 13 School Reunion

Bonnie Coar, a member of the Reunion Committee is showing former teacher, Howard Wilber, his picture with the class of 1948.

On Saturday, August 26th, 1989, the S. S. No 13 one room school house of Hallacetown held a 1923-1966 class reunion at the Dutton-Dunwich Community Centre. There were 127 former students, 4 former teachers with 206 total attendance. Teachers who attended were Mrs Geraldine Hend, Mrs. Marion Hauser, Mrs. Beatrice Hoglund and Mr. Howard Wilber.

Ken Welch asked the blessing before a delicious dinner served by Jean McPhail and her staff. Dan McKillop was the master of ceremonies. Agnes (Coleman Lynch) was the oldest female student and Harold McFarlane was the oldest male student present. Marion Burk (Callahan) travelled the farthest from Florida. These students were presented with an S.S. 13 Reunion Mug. Photocopied class pictures and little ceramic bells were given each person as a keepsake. Bells were made by Hendy's Ceramics.

A dance and luncheon finished up a memorable day with Brian Bradt providing the music.
