

ATLAS of ELGIN COUNTY

1877

RESIDENCE OF JOHN M^cCULLUM.
TOWNSHIP OF DUNWICH COUNTY OF ELGIN, ONT.

Handwritten signature or initials.

No 8 Willey's School.
May 20/1940.

- 1 Miss Frances Simpson (Teacher)
- 2 Neil M^cFarlane
- 3 Mary Lodge
- 4 Melvin Small
- 5 Margaret Jo Taylor.
- 6 Shirley Winters.
- 7 Neil Malcom Robb.
- 8 Elsie Pollard.
- 9 Mary Lou Taylor
- 10 Millard (Joe Graham)

- 11 Berna M^cFarlane
- 12 Neil M^cCallum.
- 13 Anna M^cFarlane
- 14 Mascine Small.
- 15 Sadie Lodge.
- 16 Donald M^cWilliam.
- 17 Doloes M^cCallum.
- 18 Marie Winters.

DID YOU KNOW THERE WAS A HOTEL AT THE LAKE – This picture of Whitesides Hotel, in the area now known as Duttona Beach was taken in 1905. At that time it was owned by Charles

Lyons and formerly by his father William Lyons. It is not known how long the hotel remained there before it was destroyed in a fire. Photo courtesy of Harold Lyons

CRACK SHOTS — This group of sharpshooters represented Wallacetown Rifle Club at a tournament in London, Ontario, in 1907 and brought home the trophy pictured with them. Front row, from left: John Campbell, Dutton; Sidney Turville, J. J.

Sifton and A. A. Gow, all of Wallacetown, and Alfred Bobier, Port Talbot. Back row: W. Eustace, Dutton; Henry Rapelje, Wallacetown; James Stevenson, Tyrconnell; John Telford, Dutton, and John McFarlane, Wallacetown.