

PARADE OF FASHIONS – Wallacetown Women's Institute sponsored a Fashion Show last Friday evening at the Wallacetown Hall. Modelling clothes from Reitman's and Tip Top Tailors, Whiteoaks Mall, London, were, from the left, back row: Stan Tufford, Greg Dale, Sharon Gaudon, manager at Reitman's and commentator; Cyril Heidt and Ken Monteith. Front row: Laura Mountenay, Donna Miller, Brenda Myers and Kayla Shine, and on their mother's laps are Jessa Hoffman (left) and Mikayla Myers. Clothes came in all sizes and included casual, dressy, as well as coats, jackets, suits and sleepwear.

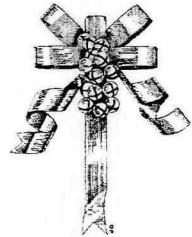

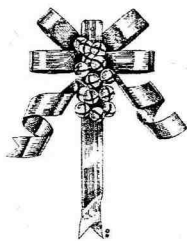

READY FOR A CASUAL OUTING – Back row, from the left, Michelle Foley, Catherine Nolan, Laura Tufford and Nancy Hunter. Front row: Rosemary Moreau, Ann Marie Gustafson, Cherie Hunter in front of mom Nancy, and Carolyn Murray. Musical entertainment by Kay and Pat Waite and Earl Bobier was enjoyed and draws were made for door prizes. Dessert, tea and coffee followed the show. Proceeds will go towards the Wallacetown Women's Institute Tweedsmuir Book Fund.

A CHRISTMAS TOUR

November 6th, 1996

STONEY POINT

Visit Erland Lee Home
Decorated for Christmas
Lunch - take a bag lunch
(Tea & coffee available)

HAMILTON

Chrysanthemum Show
27,000 blooms - 240 varieties

TOUR NIAGARA-ON-THE LAKE With Time for Shopping

Cost (inc. GST) $49.00

Includes all admission prices
and dinner on way home

Deposit - $20.00 by October 15th

Balance by October 31st

Bus Pick Up:
Wallacetown
and Dutton

For More Information
Phone:
Darlene - 762-2990

Sponsored by Wallacetown Womens' Institute

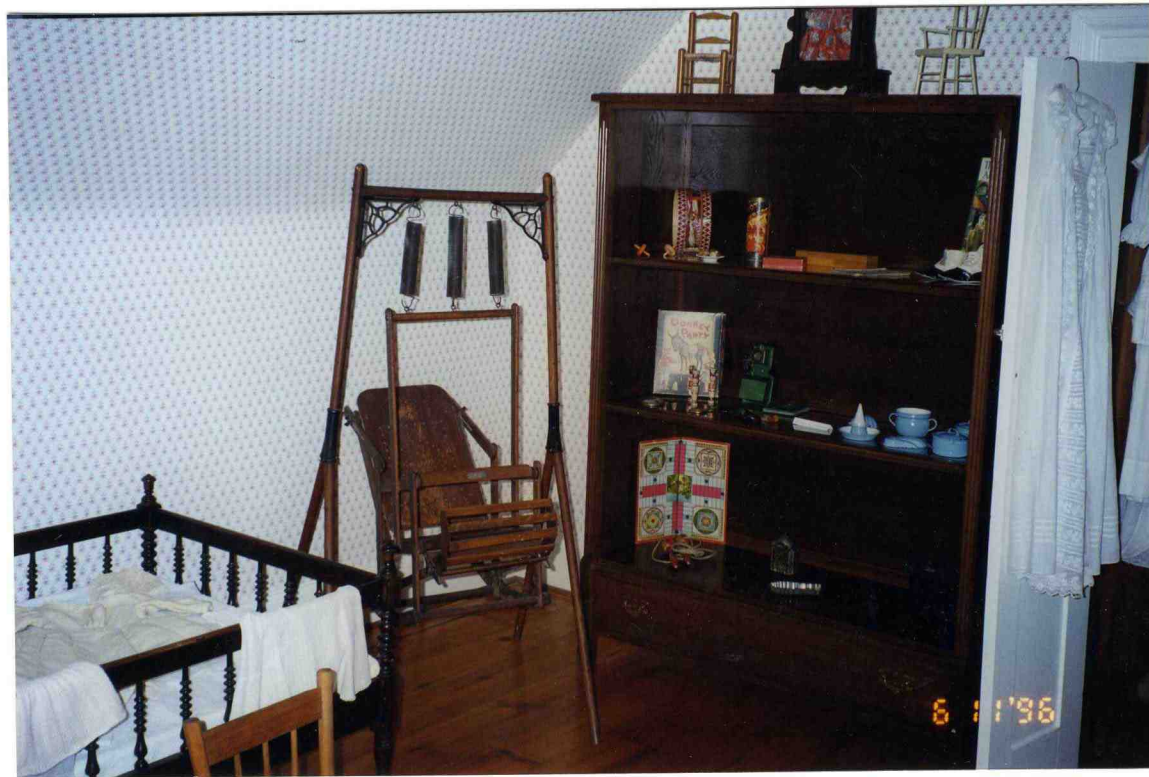

Experience Historic Niagara

Redcoat Heritage Tours

Helen Van Brenk, Sally Mc Intyre, Gladys Graham, outside The Erland Lee Home. Nov 6th 1996.

Two rooms taken at The Erland Lee Home.

Chrysanthemum Show at Hamilton.

Sally McIntyre standing near the Gingerbread House.

Louie Lackey, Kay Waite, Ruby McGugan, and Joan McLandress, at the Chrysanthemum
Show. Nov 6th 1996.

DUTTON ADVANCE--WEDNESDAY--FEBRUARY 7--1996--PAGE 7

LONG SERVICE HONoured – Several members of the Wallacetown Women's Institute were recently honoured for their years of service and commitment with Certificates of Merit. Pictured, back row, left to right: Vice-president Helen Van Brenk made the presentations to Marjorie Ripley, Gladys Graham, and front row, Dorothy Lamb and Mae Graham.