Dr. C. A. Bell Speaks at Cameron Lodge's Annual Ladies' Night

Dr. C. A. Bell, Port Stanley physician, was guest speaker at the annual Ladies' Night of Cameron Lodge at Wallacetown Community Hall on Wednesday evening, November 12th. Stuart Graham, worshipful master, was chairman for the event which, as usual, drew a capacity attendance.

The ladies of St. John's United Church served a delicious turkey dinner, appreciation for which was expressed by Donald Lackey with Mrs. Kenneth Willson responding.

Dr. Bell chose as his topic: "Life and Our Attitude to It." He described life as "a challenge to be faced, a battle to be waged and a race to be run," and urged his audience to do so with enthusiasm and dedication to duty. "There are times," Dr. Bell said, "in everyone's life when we are fed up with life, but we must go on."

It is easier to do so, the speaker said, if we realize that people are different, that they have different ways and different attitudes towards life. Such recognition develops tolerance.

Dr. Bell spoke of the changing standards of life and of the fact that it is the duty of Masons to speak out against those things they believe to be contrary to the good of mankind.

"Let us make excellence our goal in everything," Dr. Bell said in concluding his remarks.

Introduced by Stuart McWilliam, Dr. Bell was thanked by Howard Loveland.

Propose Toasts

The toast to Grand Lodge was proposed by Herb Campbell with response by James B. Wright of Aylmer, district deputy grand master of St. Thomas District. Duncan K. McKillop proposed the toast to the ladies and Mrs. Stuart Stacey responded.

Head table guests were introduced by Harold Smith.

The McWilliam Trio provided three selections in their usual pleasing style. They were accompanied by Mrs. Donald Leitch.

Draw Winners

The names of lady guests were drawn and prizes went to Mrs. Irene Loveland, Mrs. Jessie Howe, Miss Anne McWilliam and Mrs. Evelyn Bawden.

Following the dinner and program, dancing was enjoyed to music provided by Al Pierce's Orchestra.

Winners of spot dances were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Noiles, Mrs. Colin Morrison and Jack Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Findlay of St. Thomas.
