County flags to fly at half-mast in honour of Snowbirds team member

COUNTY OF ELGIN – The County of Elgin would like to express deep sadness at the tragic loss of Royal Canadian Air Force (RCAF) 431 Air Demonstration Squadron, Snowbirds team member Captain Jenn Casey of Nova Scotia that occurred this past weekend in Kamloops, B.C.

To honour our collective grief for her life lost and service to the RCAF, the Canadian flags at all County facilities have been lowered to half-mast today.

Our organization wishes to send our greatest condolences to Captain Jenn Casey's family and friends. Our thoughts are also with the loved ones of pilot Captain Richard MacDougall, who we hope will make a swift recovery from his injuries.
